Obituary

Jacqueline Elizabeth Smith-Fowler was born on May 23, 1964 in Palo Alto, CA to the proud parents of Melba and Moses Smith.

Jackie attended schools in the Richmond Unified School District where in 1983 she received her diploma from Gompers High School.

Jackie dedicated herself to Christ at an early age. She united with Christian Home Baptist Church where she served as the Inspirational Choir Director and was also director of the Christian Home Jr. Voices. Jackie was very faithful in her Christian duties until her health would not allow her to continue. On May 18, 2006, the Lord called Jackie home to be with him.

Jackie was very active in the community also. She served as cheer-leader coordinator with the Richmond Steelers youth football program where she met many friends. If you met Jackie and got to know her, you couldn't help but love her.

On September 3, 2003, Jackie united in Holy Matrimony with Danny Fowler. To this union four children were born. Jackie was a devoted mother, wife, mentor, and friend. She will truly be missed. We all loved Jackie, but God loved her most.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her devoted husband Danny Fowler, two sons, Dante R. Fowler and Jonathan D. Fowler, two daughters, Deja R. Fowler and Jonteja R. Fowler, all of Richmond, CA. One Grandson, Jonathan Fowler Jr., one sister, Novella Peterson of Richmond, CA, three brothers, Charles and Frank Kindle of Houston, TX and Murray Smith of Vallejo, CA. One mother-in-law, Josephine Fowler of Richmond, CA, two brother-in-laws, Calvin Fowler Jr. and Albert Peterson. Six sister-in-laws; Barbara Kindle, Diane Kindle, Terri Augustine, Jessie Dennis, Lena McClinton, and Gloria Brown. She is also survived by a host of relatives and friends. There is also a special survivor in Jackie's life, her pet dog "Missy".

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know.
But now we know you want us
to mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, we pledge to you today,
A hallow place within our hearts.

You hear it in the morning. You hear it in your sleep.
Love those people not only when they're weak
Keep your eyes on the prize. That's what you would always say.
For tomorrow isn't promised today.
I love you even when it was time to take care of you.
And I know you did too even now that you have a better view
I will always remeber hte time we had. But I know you're in a better place andyou see me and watch over me everday.

To My Wife

My wife, my love, my dearest friend.
You've given me your heart to tend.
I've given you my life to share:
My heart is in your tender care.

My wife, my hope, my fondest dream.
We form a true devoted team/
In all the moments life may bring.
You are my star, my everything.

My wife, my source of lasting truth.
You stir in me eternal youth:
You give my heart a sense of pride;
You fuel my warmest thoughts inside.

My wife, my daily inspiration,
You're the love in my equation
You're my source of deep affection.
You're my compass and direction.
